- The students were recognized for being safe, respectful and responsible during our PBIS assemblies. Uriah Hill highlighted the Character Education trait of being "kind" this month.
- Ms. Budds and Ms. Stratigeas' classes visited the Peekskill Senior Center and Field Library. It was a very exciting visit. They sang songs, and the children enjoyed the read-aloud from Mrs. Sally Bentley
- We had a wonderful music assembly with the Bierkos on December 16th.
- "Moms' Day at Uriah Hill" on December 9th was a great success! Moms had breakfast with their children, and they were able to make a craft in their child's class. They all received a book as a gift.
- Our Holiday Sing-A-Long was magical. Our stage was transformed into a winter wonderland. The students sang like angels. Thank you, PTO, for the funds to help with the decorations!

- The teachers put on a special skit, The Gingerbread Man and the Pirate, for the students. It was fun for all!

- The Westchester Children's Museum received a grant that will allow them to bring classes to the museum. We are taking advantage of this opportunity. We are in the process of finalizing the dates for this trip.
