- Attendance Matters! Parent and staff rallies to welcome students to school. We have had two rallies we wonderful parent participation. Parents have made amazing posters to hold up during the rally. The most recent rally was Nov. 7. The Rallies will continue through the year the first Monday of every month at 8:45.
- We celebrated 165 readers at our Summer Reading Celebration for Kindergarten and First Grade! Students were recognized with a medal and a certificate. Each student also received a book as a gift.
- We are very excited about the Class Parent program in collaboration with the PTO. We had a wonderful turn out of almost 30 parents for the Orientation meeting led by Jennifer Carbaugh! Thank you!
- Eris Morillo, school psychologist, and Maria Olivier-Flores, social worker, gave an interactive workshop for parents on the Social & Emotional Well Being of Children. More than 40 parents came to this informative even on Oct. 26.
- On October 31st we celebrated fall with the Woodside's Fall Festival Parade. Students marched around the front soccer field to spooky tunes. Many parents came out to see all the wonderful costumes. Cindy Ocasio coordinated costume donations to provide costume to over 100 students who needed them!
- Woodside is continuing our work with CUNY on educating emergent bilinguals. They will be joining us for a faculty conference on Nov. 10.
- Woodside will celebrate Veteran's day with an assembly on Nov. 10 honoring our service men and women.
- BOOK FAIR!!! Nov. 14-18
