Committee Class Parents

Items Requiring a Vote:

N/A

Items Requiring Discussion:

- I would like organize class parents for a bake sale fundraiser. My idea is (I will use Woodside as my example) one Kindergarten class and one First grade class sell baked goods at pickup on Fridays, rotating through the classes. We could set up a table at pickup and push a cart around to sell to teachers before they go home. If we did this at both Woodside and Oakside and sold $100 worth of baked goods per grade that would be $400 a week. If we did it for 12 weeks, that's a potential of $4800.....assuming everything went perfect.....hardy har har..... Is that something we would be allowed to do????

Items for Information Only:

- A number of class parents are having a hard time getting parents to volunteer. They are also having a hard time communicating with teachers. Next school year I will spend more time focusing on communicating with teachers and really selling them on this program.
- A few things class parents have been a part of: making hats for winter concerts; ornament making craft; reading to children; holiday party; organizing holiday gifts; gingerbread house crafts.
