Committee Class Parents

Items Requiring a Vote:

N/A

Items Requiring Discussion:

- A lack of complete Class Lists is frustrating and making it difficult for Class Parents to get information to parents in the classroom.

Items for Information Only:

- We had a class Parent Orientation on October 24th. Approximately 50 parents were there, including the Class Parent Committee. Myrna Santos at PKHS provided us with student volunteers from the Latin Culture Club to watch kids.
- Woodside used the program to spread information about school wide activities (Raz-Kids book assembly, PBIS parent volunteers, tie dye project)
- Uriah Hill used the program to get parent volunteers to make Thanksgiving costumes.
- 8 Woodside Class Parents are set to help with the PTO's Art to Remember fundraiser, at Woodside.
- Class Parent Committee members are reaching out to class parents, encouraging them to communicate with teachers and other parents, offering any help and support they may need.
